

ENTRY FORM – 12TH ANNIVERSARY NEW FOREST RUN

Date: Sunday 6th June 2010
Start: Scout Field, near the Empress of Blandings, Copythorne

Come and join us for a journey around the New Forest – approximately 80-85 miles of beautiful countryside, wildlife and peace and quiet. Your £15 entry fee will include a route book, rally plate, finishers' plaque, and a small packed lunch, as well as the chance to share in this beautiful part of the country for the day. Our famous bacon butty breakfast will also be available.

Profits from the day will be split between 2 local charities - Honeypot, who provide respite care and support for vulnerable children and young carers, and Down Syndrome Education International, whose mission is to help people with Down syndrome achieve more in all areas of their development by informing progress everywhere through research and education.

We will be having our usual Saturday night get together, this year at the Bold Forester at Marchwood. It's an informal evening, we're just gathering for a few drinks and some chat, and anyone who's in the area will be welcome to join us at no cost!
